

FISCAL NOTE

TO: Chief Clerk of the Senate
Chief Clerk of the House

FROM: James A. Davenport, Executive Director

DATE: April 6, 1995

SUBJECT: SB 782 - HB 1209

This bill, if enacted, will require that agreements, covering terms and conditions of professional service, entered into by the board of education and professional employee's organizations must include in such agreements procedures for final and binding arbitration over disputes arising out of the interpretation, application or violation of such agreements.

The fiscal impact from enactment of this bill, based upon information furnished by the American Arbitration Association, is estimated to be an increase in local government* expenditures. However, such increase is estimated not to be significant.

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

James A. Davenport, Executive Director

*Article II, Section 24 of the Tennessee Constitution provides that: no law of general application shall impose increased expenditure requirements on cities or counties unless the General Assembly shall provide that the state share in the cost.
